

The Full Stop

Rule 1: Use a full stop at the end every declarative sentence.

Rule 2: Use a full stop after initials in names.

Rule 3: Use a full stop after abbreviated titles of respect.

Rule 4: Use a full stop after abbreviations of days and months.

The Full Stop

Rule 1: Use a full stop at the end every declarative sentence.

Rule 2: Use a full stop after initials in names.

Rule 3: Use a full stop after abbreviated titles of respect.

Rule 4: Use a full stop after abbreviations of days and months.

The Full Stop

Rule 1: Use a full stop at the end every declarative sentence.

Rule 2: Use a full stop after initials in names.

Rule 3: Use a full stop after abbreviated titles of respect.

Rule 4: Use a full stop after abbreviations of days and months.

Comma Rules 1 & 2

Rule 1: Use a comma after Yes or No at the beginning of a sentence.

Rule 2: Use a comma after the name of a person you are speaking to in a sentence.

THE COMMA

Comma Rules 1 & 2

Rule 1: Use a comma after Yes or No at the beginning of a sentence.

Rule 2: Use a comma after the name of a person you are speaking to in a sentence.

THE COMMA

Comma Rules 1 & 2

Rule 1: Use a comma after Yes or No at the beginning of a sentence.

Rule 2: Use a comma after the name of a person you are speaking to in a sentence.

THE COMMA